CITY IN BRIEF.

Senator McDonald arrived home last night from Washington.

Pressler John, a railroad man, was arrested yesterday by Constable Glass on a charge of Councilman Wharton, who recently received injuries at the hands of A. B. Cutting, The remains of John Landers did not arrive yesterday on account of failure to connect trains at Kansas City, but they will be here at 11 o'clock this morning. Mrs. Joseph E. Cobb was on Saturday elected President of the Bethany Sewing School, a charitable organziation which meets every Saturday afternoon at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. John P. Farley, Judge L. M. Ninde, C. D.

Jenny, Fort Wayne; W. R. Moon, Frankfort; S. W. Cochran, Colonel Thomas Hanlon, New Albany; Joseph Robinson, J. Watson, Brazil; Henry H. Wilhorn, Evansville; J. Hosford, Boston; P. Jandorf, New York; Miss Emms Abbott, Abbott Opera Company are at the Grand.

Mr. C. E. Shaw, of this city, has a rare medal of decided age, which should probably be called the Harrison medal. On one side is lettered around the border: "The People's Choice, the Hero of Tippecanoe," with the cabin in which the old General was supposed to be born as the center piece. The opposite side around a vignette of the old hero reads: "Mejor General W. H. Harrison, Born February 9, 1773." Merchant Policeman Isaacs, about 11 o'clock last night, placed Herman Gates, a Haughville saloon-keeper, under arrest for drunkenness. Gates made a show of resistance, and finally drawing a gun, shoved it | Another woman found a thief's hand in her

Something About the Men Who Seek Lodgings at the Police Station in a City Where There is No Work-House.

A large number of tramps and homeless persons have been given lodgings at the Central Station since the beginning of the winter-in fact, nearly double the number that were housed last year, and still they come. The "tramp" room, about 11 o'clock on a cold night, certainly presents a novel appearance. The floor is literally covered with men and boys, a large portion of whom possess most villainons faces that have not come in contact with water for many a long day. When they walk the ragged and dirty clothes in which they are attired threaten to fall off their shivering forms.

Probably no man connected with the Police Department has a more extensive acquaintance with these gentry than Al Taffe, day Turnkey at the Central Station. He has held this position for about twelve years, and knows about two thirds of the profesand knows about two thirds of the professionals, nearly all of whom winter in Indianapolis, because this city boasts of no work-house. While there is no one connected with the department who will do more for a man actually in "hard luck," Al has very little use for a "profesh," and it doesn't take him long to acquaint this class with the fact. He has time and time again gone down into his own pocket to assist deserving persons and own pocket to assist deserving persons, and on more occasions than one has procured for them situations. From this official a Sentinel representative (recently learned that there is a certain gang of profes-sionals who have for the past five years steered forthis city just as soon as the weather began to get cold. As soon as they arrive they commit some petty misdemeanor, for which they are generally sent up for sixty days. When their time is up they loiter around the police station until the authorities, wishing to get rid of them, slate them for vagrancy, and they go over for thirty days. By the time they have served this sentence the meether is generally this sentence the weather is generally warm-or at lesst much warmer during the winter months, and they begin to leave the city, scattering out in all directions. This winter, however, having been a very hard one, most of the old-timers are still here, and here they will remain until apring fairly opens.

A tramp generally leaves his mark behind, and the walls of the sleeping apartment above mentioned are completely covered with such names as "Texas Jack," "Boston Slim," "Brocky Joe," "Big Foot Tom," "Crawfish Bill," "Light-fingered Jack," "St. Louis Pete," etc. They pride themselves on these aliases and their reputation as thugs and Amusement Matters.

The Zoo opens the week to-night with the Leonzo Brothers in a sensational drama and a strong olio. This afternoon, at I o'clock, the Dime Museum opens with the strongest bill of the season, the chief feature of which is "Baby Venus," the wonderful child wo man.

Mile. Rhea appears at the Grand Opera House the last two nights of this week in "Arcadia," "Camille" and "The American Countess." Sale of seats opens to-morrow

Barlow & Wilson's famous minstrels give a single performance at the Grand Opera House on Thursday evening next. Sale

To-night at the Grand Opera House the popular Abbott Opera Company will open a brief season, presecting "La Traviata," with Abbott, Tagliapietra, Hindle, Greenwood, Allen, Guise and Connell in the leading roles. On Tuesday night, "Mignon," with Abbott, Bellini, Annandale, Castle, Broderick Allen, Ward and Greenwood, Allen, Bellini, Annandale, Castle, Broderick, Allen, Ward and Guise in the cast. Wednesday matinee, "Heart and Hand." Wednesday night, "Semiramide," with Abbott, Annandale, Hindle, Fabrinia, Broderick, Reed and Ward in the east. New and expensive costumes and accurate wardrobe will enhance the operas.

The Hollywood Juvenile Opera Company

open a week's engagement at English's. Matines daily. Admission, 10, 20 and 30 cents. "Cinderella," with Baby Clara Hollywood, aged six, in the title role, Master Richard, aged nine, as "Prince." These are the youngest leading people on any stage. Their singing and acting are perfect and fascinating. The support, costumes and scenery of this elfin attraction are of excellent material and design.

The Elks.

The local lodge of Eiks, last night, after the regular communication, held one of the most enjoyable sessions this popular order has ever given. Mr. Sam B. Cox, of Philadelphia Lodge, wielded the gravel as Chairman, and in the expressive language of Jim Cooke, "he was a dandy." He made every body come to time, and as a result, a gen-eral good time was had. Music by the Zoo orchestra, songs, recitations and specialties of different kinds were the order of the evening, and "all went merry as a marriage bell." (chesnut!) until 11 o'clock, when "Auid Lange Syne" was sung and the party dispersed. A number of visiting brothers and professional people contributed largely to the enjoyment of the evening. A pleasing surprise during the evening was the presen-tation, by members of the lodge, of an elegant gold badge, emblematic of the order, to Brother John B. Doris, proprietor of the Grand Inter-Ocean Shows. Mr. Jay Voss made the presentation speech, and Mr. Doris responded in feeling terms.

They Meet in the Garret.

The Union Vetern Army is now meeting in the garret over Judge Tayler's court room. This is a political organization gotten up in the interests of a few candidates, and heretofore they have been meeting in the various court rooms. The Judges became tired of this, and by order of the Connty Board they were refused the court rooms for meetings. It was for this reason that they moved to the garret. They pay no rents, and as they meet after night they are compelled to burn gas, thereby adding to the county expense. The Commissioners would do well to look into the matter at their next meeting and cut off this expense.

The Pickpocket Abroad.

Pickpeckets went though the crowd at the Museum Saturday night and committed a number of robberies. A German lady, living near the corner of McCarty and Delaware streets, was robbed of her pocketbook, containing $15 and a number of papers. directly in the officer's face. Before he | pocket in time to save her money. A man | could use the weapon, however, a hack driver, who was standing near, snatched it out of his hand, and the copper used his mace with some effect. The additional charge of carrying concealed weapons was placed opposite the prisoner's name.

lost a watch, and a number of others were relieved of various articles, such as money, watches and jewelry, and all day yesterday reports kept coming in of losses by different parties. There is believed to be a gang of these thieves in the city, and they went with these thieves in the city, and they went with the intention of working the crowd.

A Commendable Charity.

The ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church will give a supper, in the church parlors, on Friday evening, the proceeds of which will be expended in placing beds and other furniture in the charity ward of the City Hospital. It is estimated that the amount needed for the proposed work is $360, and a liberal patronage of the supper would aid materially in the charity.

"What beautiful Carpets Mr. Gall is selling," said Mrs. Q. to Mrs. X.

"And what Elegant New Patterns. Why, everybody's talking about it," rejoined Mrs. X. "I think his Body and Tapestry Brussels, Moquettes and Velvets are in the handsomest designs I have ever seen." "And so Cheap!"

"Cheap! I never knew anything like it before. I was charmed with his Wall Papers; also, what exquisite taste he must have to select such delicate harmonies in colors."

"But, did you see the Lovely Lace Curtains Mr. Gall is showing now, and the Magnificent Rugs? and at such low prices. I don't understand it."

"Well, I do. Mr. Gall bought just at the right time. The market had touched the very lowest point. So you see, dear, that's the way he is able to give us such bauutitul things at such delightfully low prices.
